DEATH FORETOLD BY PHONOGRAPH

Mrs. Howard McGrail, of Bendersville, Became suddenly ill Following Crumbling of Favorite Phonograph Records.

The death of Mrs. Howard McGrail, a former resident of Bendersville, which occurred in Harrisburg on Sunday morning was foretold by a peculiar phonograph incident. Mrs. Mc-Grail visited in Adams County last week returning to her home in Harrisburg last Thursday.

Mr. McGrail has a large phonograph and on Saturday evening took it into the rear yard of his home and began running off several new records which neighbors had given him. During the playing his wife came out to listen while the instrument played her favorite hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy." At its conclusion she requested her husband to repeat it.

As he was about to accede to her request the record suddenly broke in two in his hands. He was startled as the record was perfectly new, but in order not to alarm her he said: "O no, I'll try something else. I never did like that myself," and going over to the cabinet he selected a little catchy song that had always been one of her favorites. He carried this one over to the machine and was about to put it on when that record also crumbled in his hands. Mr. McGrail was visibly startled, and having a feeling that something was wrong, turned around to put the machine away when his wife gave a little scream and he saw that she was ill.

Simultaneously with the breaking of the second record she had become critically ill. She was helped into the house and her little 6-year old daughter, Beryl, looked after her until medical aid was summoned, but the breaking of the records had been death's token. She died several hours afterward.

Neither of the records had ever been used and no reason could be given for the breaking, as they were not cracked. Mr. McGrail said he felt the moment the second had broken that something was to befall her.

WHITE CHURCH

White Church, Aug. 11—Following is a report of St. Mark's Sunday School festival which was held July 31st:
amount of money received, $89.24;
amount clear for the school, $85.32;
also each scholar received a treat of a plate of ice cream.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Collins and Mr.
and Mrs. C. E. Wolfe and son, Ralph, visited at the home of F. J. Wolfe on Sunday.

Jonas Wolfe and Misses Ruth Wolf and Eunice Garber attended the festival at St. Mark's and spent Sunday at the homes of C. E. Wolfe and Clavin Fissel.

Miss Mary Hubley, of Shippensburg, is visiting Misses Laura and Ethel Wolfort.

W. J. Collins and C. E. Wolfe were at Fairfield on Tuesday erecting a Samson wind wheel for W. Ross
White.

The carpenters are through with
Rev. Martin Rudisill's house. Rev.
Mr. Rudisill and family have moved into it.

Jacob Snyder is having a galvanized roof put on his house. Mr. Waga-man is doing the work.

Miss Effie Swartz spent Saturday night and Sunday with Miss Edna Worley.

NEW PAROCHIAL RESIDENCE

CONVENTION

The busiest session of the Brotherhood of America convention was held this morning when the following business was transacted:

Wilkesbarre was chosen over Harrisburg as the place for holding next year's convention, the vote standing 85 to 26.

The press of Gettysburg and Philadelphia were thanked for consideration and space given the convention.

Edward Viebahn, of Houtzdale, was elected to the Supreme Circle in recognition of meritorious service.

C. A. Kerns, of Philadelphia was elected Grand Watch of the Night.

A resolution compelling all subordinate circles to have a compulsory physical examination of candidates was defeated.

W. S. Reed, of Harrisburg, was elected Grand Chief Washington. Immediately following his election, Mount Vernon Circle of which he is a member, presented him with a handsome gold watch fob.

Past Grand Chief Washington A. L.
Welsh, of Philadelphia, was presented with a G. E. W. Jewel in appreciation of his services.

Julius Viebahn assisted by G. W.
Heinecke, of Philadelphia, installed
the Grand Circle officers.

Several interesting addresses were made during the morning by Frank W. Reeves, of Atlantic City, one of the most prominent members of the order present.

This morning's session closed this year's convention.

Saturday 12.30 p. m.

CATHOLICS HOLD ANNUAL PICNIC

St. Francis Xavier Parish holds its Annual Picnic at Round Top.
Largest Crowd and Most Successful Picnic.

The largest and most successful picnic ever held by St. Francis Xavier church took place on Wednesday at Round Top.

The place was crowded all day long by the members of the church and their friends and all had a good time.
Even so early as dinner many were at the hill and one hundred were served with the noonday meal. During the afternoon many more went out and in the evening there was an immense crowd present.

People enjoyed themselves dancing, the Gettysburg Band playing for the various dances. A shooting gallery and fish pond were also scenes of attraction though the "fish" in the latter were all caught early in the day.

The picnickers were most liberal in their purchasing and refreshments were at a premium early in the evening. Many delicious cakes found ready buyers and it was but a short time until the supply was exhausted. By nine o'clock every kind of liquid refreshment was gone, not even drinking water being available to refresh the big crowd.

The affair was well managed and in addition to being profitable was a very pleasant event for all who attended.

VISITOR FROM CHICAGO

John H. Gates, of Chicago, who is employed with the Standard Oil Company on the clerical staff in the Chicago offices, is visiting friends in Adams County. He expects to return to his post of duty on September 1st.

Mr. Gates' former home was near New Oxford, and for a number of years he was one of Adams County's popular school teachers. But since he is working for John D. he thinks from a monetary consideration, his work as a teacher was simply a stepping stone to something that far exceeds that of the teaching profession.

IN JAIL

Joseph Freed and his wife, of near McSherrystown, are in jail to await the action of the grand jury. Freed being charged with assault and battery by his wife. Mr. Freed was committed to jail by Justice V. H. Lilly, of McSherrystown. Both defendants were arrested by constable Charles D.
Groft, of McSherrystown. They have several children who will have to be cared for by the county authorities.

VALLEY WON AGAIN

The Buchanan Valley base ball team journeyed to Orrtanna and won a hard uphill game. Twice during the game the score was a tie. The game was won in the first half of the ninth inning when with the score 12 to 10 against them the Valley boys batted out a victory. The score was 14 to 12
in favor of the Valley team.

FOUND OLD CEMETERY

M. R. Deardorff and family and B.
L. Resh and family, of Kralltown, spent one day at the Conewago recently and in climbing over the mountain came across an old graveyard with quite a number of tombstones, some dating as far back as 1777 and others nearly as old.

POLICE RESIGNS

C. D. Groft, of McSherrystown, constable and policeman of that borough, has resigned his position as policeman, to take effect at once. John Daugherty, a former policeman, was appointed to fill the vacancy.

FOUND SNAKE EGGS

Simon Smith who lived in the West for the past thirty years has returned to Adams County. He has purchased the Peter Moritz property on route 1
Orrtanna to which he has moved. Mr.
Smith enjoys living in the old Keystone State. He is an old soldier of the Civil War, a jovial and entertaining man, and has many friends who are glad to welcome him back.

County Farmers Troubled

Deer seem to be plentiful, and are becoming destructive to land owners in the Western end of the county, eating beans, sweet potato vines, oats, etc.

SIGN ARTICLES FOR BIG FIGHT

Jeffries and Johnson Will Meet Within Eight Months.

$5000 POSTED AS SIDE BET

Agreement Calls For a Fight of From 20 to 100 Rounds—The Division of the Purse Left to the Decision of Jeffries.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—Articles of agreement for a fight between Jack Johnson and James J. Jeffries for the heavyweight championship of the world were signed here. The fight is to take place within eight months before the club offering the best inducements. All bids for the fight are to be in within sixty days.

Sam Berger, manager for James J. Jeffries; George Little, Johnson's manager, and Jack Johnson were present at the meeting when the articles were signed.

The agreement as signed calls for a fight of from 20 to 100 rounds for the heavyweight championship of the world. The division of the purse was left to the decision of Jeffries. It also provides that as a guarantee of good faith each of the parties to the agreement shall post $5000 with Charles A. Comiskey, of Chicago, within seventy-two hours on the understanding that the $5000 operate as a side bet on the contest.

The Agreement.

The following is the agreement signed by Berger and Johnson:

"Form of agreement entered into this eleventh day of August, 1909, between Jack Johnson, of Galveston, Tex., and James J. Jeffries, of Los Angeles, Cal.

"It is agreed between these men mutually that they shall box a certain number of rounds, the same to be anywhere from 20 to 100, for the heavyweight championship of the world.

"Contest to be held before the club offering the best inducements and mutually agreed upon by the contestants.

"The division of such purse shall be on a basis of either 60 per cent and 40 per cent to winner and loser respectively, or 75 per cent and 25 per cent, or winner may be permitted to take the entire amount. The decision in this matter to rest with James J. Jeffries.

"The sum of $5000 each is to be posted with Charles A. Comiskey, of Chicago, as a guarantee of good faith and the fulfillment by each side of the terms of this agreement. Said money to be posted within seventy-two hours. It is further agreed that the above-named $5000 shall operate as a side bet on the result of the contest.

"It is further agreed that the club will be selected and mutually agreed upon sixty days from date, at which time all further details will be mutually agreed upon.

"Contest to take place not later than six months from date of selecting club and the signing of final articles."

FOREST FIRES RAGING

Pennsylvania Forestry Department Appealed For Aid.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 12.—The state forestry department has reports of forest fires in Cumberland, Potter, Schuylkill, Lycoming, Sullivan and Northumberland counties, and has been unofficially informed of fires in other counties which have not been reported by representatives of the department. Requests are coming from many sections for the appointment of fire wardens, who in turn appoint assistants and laborers to aid in the work of stopping the flames.

CORN FIELDS BURNING UP

No Rain Has Fallen in Northern Virginia For Six Weeks.

Winchester, Va., Aug. 12.—The great corn fields of northern Virginia are burning up. The severest drought of years is prevailing, and for more than six weeks little if any rain has fallen in the Shenandoah and Page valleys. Streams are lower than for years and many are dry. The corn crop will be almost a total failure, while all growing crops are cut short.

Relief From Drought Promised.

Washington, Aug. 12.—Present barometric conditions indicate that the prevailing drought in the Atlantic states from Virginia northward over Maryland, Pennsylvania, New York and New England will be relieved in part by showers by the close of the present week and that more general rains will fall in the states referred to by the middle of next week.

Hurled to Death Against Wall.

Pittston, Pa., Aug. 12.—While attempting to repair a leak in a six-inch compressed-air pipe in the Exeter mine at West Pittston, Ralph Polin, a machinist, aged twenty-five years, was instantly killed. The pipe burst at a joint and Polin was hurled with terrific force against a concrete wall fifteen feet away.

FOUND $100,000 IN BEGGAR'S HUT

Walls and Furniture Literally Stuffed With Money.

Pittsburg, Aug. 12.—After a terrific battle between four policemen and Peter Liebauch, an old hermit, inspectors of the North Side station, while searching the old man's hut, found the walls and furniture bulging with money. A trunk was filled with silver dollars, bottles and jars held smaller coins, bureau drawers were stuffed with bundles of bills.

In all the police found close to $100,000, and when their search seemed to be ended they stumbled upon a wash-bowl filled to the brim with quarters, half dollars and dollars.

Liebauch was locked up and will be examined to determine the condition of his mind. He is thought to be demented. The money was hauled to the Farmers' National bank in a wagon, and so heavy was the load that the horse was stalled.

Liebauch for years has been begging on the streets, as did other members of his family.

ALFONSO MAY CHALLENGE

Spanish King Said to Have Longing to Try For America's Cup.

London, Aug. 12.—Reports are current in yachting circles here that King Alfonso, of Spain, is a possible challenger for the America's cup.

This rumor apparently is based on the fact that the king, during the construction of his yacht Hispania, which was built in Spain from designs by Fife, evinced curiosity regarding the conditions governing the contests for this trophy.

Wage Increase For Coal Miners.

Shenandoah, Pa., Aug. 12.—United States Commissioner of Labor Neil, of Washington, notified the anthracite coal operators that, according to the price of coal at tide water, the mine workers' wages for the month of August would be 2 per cent above the basis, an increase of 1 per cent over July.

HELP FOR SHACKLETON

British Explorer May Receive Government Aid.

London, Aug. 12.—In the house of commons Prime Minister Asquith, in answer to a question, stated that the government had under consideration the matter of making a grant to Lieutenant Edward H. Shackleton toward the expenses of his recent Antarctic expedition.

LIEUTENANT E. H. SHACKLETON

The expenses of the expedition amounted to $215,000, which sum was furnished by a London bank on the personal security of the lieutenant and his relatives. Although since his return Shackleton has received some contributions, it was stated a few days ago that there was still a deficit of $70,000, that the British government had refused to make any grant in Shackleton's aid, and that he would have to pay his debts out of the proceeds of a book he is to write and a lecture tour that he is to make in the United States next year.

B. & O. RAILROAD GIVES OUT CONTRACTS

Orders New Equipment to Cost Over $10,000,000.

Baltimore, Aug. 12.—Announcement was made at the executive offices of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad company that the company in carrying out the recently decided upon increase of equipment has closed contracts as follows: One thousand composite gondola cars, 1000 coke cars and 600 all-steel hopper cars, Standard Steel Car company, Butler, Pa.; 1000 all-steel coke cars, Cambria Steel company, Johnstown, Pa.; forty-five passenger coaches and five combined passenger and baggage cars, American Car and Foundry company, Wilmington, Del.; ten baggage cars, five cafe and parlor cars, five all-steel postal cars, Barney & Smith Car company, Dayton, O. In addition to the contracts enumerated above, others for 1000 box cars, 500 refrigerator cars and 500 ventilated cars, sixty locomotives and two electric locomotives will be placed upon the completion of the negotiations now pending. The Baltimore & Ohio has also placed orders for steel rails, 90 and 100 pounds weight, viz.: 2000 tons, Bethlehem Steel company, Bethlehem, Pa.; 3000 tons, Illinois Steel company, Gard, Ind.; 12,000 tons, Carnegie Steel company, Pittsburgh, and 10,250 tons, Maryland Steel company, Baltimore.

Between $6,000,000 and $7,000,000 are called for in the contracts closed, and those pending will carry the total beyond $10,000,000.

New Order From Pennsy.

Pittsburg, Aug. 12.—In addition to the $5,400,000 in car orders placed last week by the Pennsylvania railroad, the Pennsylvania line west of Pittsburg awarded contracts for approximately $3,000,000 worth of freight equipment to the Standard Steel Car company and the Cambria Steel company. This makes a total of more than $9,000,000 expended this year by the Pennsylvania Railroad company for freight equipment alone.

Five Years

of Heart Trouble Cured by Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy

"Before I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy I had been suffering from heart trouble for over five years. I had pains in my left side, and under my shoulder blade, could not sleep on the left side, and was so short of breath the least exertion would bring on the most distressing palpitation. I had scarcely taken a half bottle of the Heart Remedy before I could see a marked change in my condition. When I had taken six bottles I was cured."

MRS. C. C. GORKEY,
Northfield, Va.

If there is fluttering or palpitation it is an indication of a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the heart. It is not necessarily diseased—just weak from over-work. The heart may be weak just the same as the eyes, stomach or other organs. You can make a weak heart strong by taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy. Get a bottle from your druggist, take it according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.

SIGNALS OF DISTRESS

Gettysburg People Should Know How to Read and Heed Them.

Sick kidneys give many signals of distress. The secretions are dark, contain a sediment.

Passages are frequent, scanty, painful. Backache is constant day and night. Headaches and dizzy spells are frequent. The weakened kidneys need quick help. Don't delay! Use a special kidney remedy.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys, backache and urinary disorders. Gettysburg evidence proves this statement.

Mrs. Sarah Hamilton, 60 Breckenridge St., Gettysburg, Pa., says: "I endured much misery from disordered kidneys for a long time and was unable to find anything that would give me relief. I was very nervous, suffered from headaches and at times had sharp, shooting pains throughout my body. The passages of the kidney secretions were also very irregular. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box at the People's drug store and used them. I improved from the first and am today in better health than before in years. I give Doan's Kidney Pills my heartiest endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

G. A. R. VETERANS FELLED BY HEAT

Twenty Soldiers and 100 Children in Living Flag Overcome.

6000 IN ANNUAL PARADE

Crowd of 100,000 Cheered Thinning Ranks of Old Veterans in Salt Lake City, Despite the Oppressive Heat.

Salt Lake City, Aug. 12.—Midsummer heat thinned the annual parade of the Grand Army of the Republic at the forty-third encampment and wrought suffering among the hundreds of children who participated in the formation of the living flag. So oppressive was the heat that the living flag did not march in the procession.

At least 100 children and twenty veterans were taken from the street. Many recovered as soon as they were placed in the shade. Those treated at the emergency stations numbered about forty, including thirty children. There were no fatalities. Three relief stations, attended by trained nurses, insured prompt and capable aid for all sufferers.

When the parade started the thermometers registered 85 degrees, but notwithstanding the discomfort the parade was a great success. The 6000 aged and bent veterans, walking four abreast, wrought patriotic emotions in the breasts of more than 100,000 persons who saw the spectacle. One of the pleasing companies was that of the Green Mountain boys of Vermont, who wore sprigs of pine in their hat bands.

Arkansas had only four veterans in line, while Illinois had the largest number marching.

At the rear came a little band whose banners evoked the darkest pictures of the Civil War. On white banners the watchers read "Libby," "Andersonville," "Macon," "Tyler," "Belle Isle" and the names of other Confederate prisons. The division consisted of the former prisoners of war.

The column was strictly military. The Fifteenth Infantry, U. S. A., from Fort Douglass, took the lead, followed by the Utah National Guard and the carriages conveying the commander-in-chief, his staff and distinguished guests.

Illinois led the states. Then came Wisconsin, Pennsylvania and Ohio—on down the list to Oklahoma. The Union ex-prisoners of war marched after Oklahoma and the Utah comrades modestly brought up the rear.

To the music of a score of bands the column moved slowly down the broad street, past cheering bands of spectators. The parade moved past the reviewing stand where the veterans proudly saluted their commander-in-chief, Henry M. Nevius.

TUG SINKS; FOUR DROWN

Four of Naval Vessel's Crew Go Down When It Capsizes.

Rockport, Mass., Aug. 12.—In staggering round Cape Ann before a westerly gale and loaded to her gunwales with anchors, the naval tug Nezinscot captized, carrying down four members of the crew. The vessel was bound from Portsmouth to Boston, and sank off Hallow Point.

Those lost were: Charles F. Trotter, acting assistant surgeon; C. L. Taylor, ordinary seaman; C. F. White, colored, ship's cook, first class; L. R. Edwards, colored, seaman.

The second officer, the captain's wife and her little boy and eight members of the crew were landed at Lanesville. They reported that Captain Evans, the surgeon, the engineer and several seamen were drifting out to sea before the gale on the life raft.

Captain Evans and Engineer Belfrio were picked up by the Doherty's Neck life saving crew and landed here.

Dr. Trotter was washed off the grating and drowned. The men were picked up inside of Ipswich bay about four miles off shore.

U. S. IN ON CHINESE LOAN

Bankers of This Country Will Get One-Fourth of Bonds For Railroad.

Pekin, Aug. 12.—At the meeting held here between Henry P. Fletcher, the American charge d'affaires, representatives of the German, British and French group of bankers, and Liang Tun Yen, president of the board of foreign affairs, assurances were given that the United States would get one-fourth of the total of the loan for the construction of the Hankow-Sze-Chuen railroad.

18 Years in Bed, Rises, Goes to Work. Fayetteville, Pa., Aug. 12.—By merely exercising her will, Miss Emma Rodgers, who for eighteen years had been in bed from an injury to her spine, got up at her home and began to do housework. The exercise has so strengthened her she is apparently normal again.

Swallowed Quid; It Saved His Life. Logansport, Ind., Aug. 12.—While assisting a lineman, Park Policeman August Walters, of this place, seized a wire cable and received 2200 volts and couldn't let go, but has recovered. Doctors say his life was saved by his swallowing a chew of tobacco when he got the shock, acting as a stimulant and keeping up the heart action.

ARAPAHOE IS DISABLED

Steamship Breaks Tail Shaft and Drifts Helplessly.

Beaufort, N. C., Aug. 12.—The steamship Arapahoe, of the Clyde line, for Jacksonville and Savannah from New York, broke her tail shaft and reported by wireless message received at this station that she was drifting helplessly.

The ship at the time she flashed her "C. Q. D." was twenty-one miles southwest of Diamond Shoals Lightship.

Wireless reports state that the steamer Huron, of the Clyde line, arrived to aid the Arapahoe. The Huron is standing by and possibly will take the Arapahoe in tow and thus save a large salvage bill.

The Arapahoe is heavily loaded and has quite a number of passengers on board.

BODY FOUND IN RIVER

Man Who Disappeared at Burlington Believed to Have Fallen Overboard.

Burlington, N. J., Aug. 12.—The body of Harold Myers, the electrical engineer, who mysteriously disappeared from the deck of the launch Viking on Monday evening, was discovered floating in the Delaware river. The authorities now believe that he was suddenly taken ill and fell overboard before he could call for assistance. There were no marks upon his body and even his nose glasses were undisturbed.

CUMMINS READY FOR 1912 FIGHT

Will Lead the Insurgents Against the Stand-patters.

Chicago, Aug. 12.—Political circles here buzzed over a published interview with Senator Albert B. Cummins, of Iowa, in which the former governor threw down the gauntlet to Speaker Cannon, Senator Aldrich and other "stand-pat" members of congress, in a declaration that henceforward it would be war to the knife, and the knife to the hilt, between the progressives and the dominant faction in congress which put through the tariff legislation. Between the lines of the talk local politicians, some of them of national reputation and prominent in party circles, saw the Iowa senator as a presidential possibility. In short, Cummins as much as said he would be willing to lead the "insurgent" forces in a battle to retire the firm of Cannon, Aldrich, Payne and company for all time. He announced that the fight would be begun in Iowa this fall, and continued in every state in the Union and in the national convention in 1912.

From the point of view of the Iowa senator the tariff never again will be an issue between Republican and Democrat, but will be a bone of much contention between rival factions of the Republican party. That the progressives will ultimately win he appeared to be confident. The start was made when the progressives lined up against the bill pending in Washington.

The Cummins platform, on which he will begin to battle this fall in Iowa, calls for the appointment of a tariff commission. This committee he would have composed of experts, sitting in continual session for the collection of data on schedules. This information he would have at the disposal of congress at each session.

On this he would readjust the tariff from year to year, according to international business requirement.

WANTED FOR MURDER

York Prisoner Held For Larceny Identified by Photograph.

York, Pa., Aug. 12.—C. R. Urquhart, who was arrested here, charged with larceny, has been identified by photograph by the authorities of Waverly, Va., as Colonel Urquhart, who is wanted in Sussex county to answer to a charge of murder. He will be returned to Virginia for trial.

Held For Election Frauds.

New York, Aug. 12.—On request of the Pennsylvania authorities, Michael Cuss, twenty-five years old, a clerk, was held in court here as a fugitive from justice in Schuylkill county, on a charge of violating the election laws. He was committed for thirty days to await the arrival of extradition papers.

GRUESOME SCENE IN SUTTON INQUIRY

Expert Uses Skulls to Trace Course of Bullet.

SAYS SUTTON DIDN'T FIRE SHOT

Dr. Schaeffer Declares Under the Circumstances It Was Impossible For Lieutenant to Pull the Trigger—Sergeant Todd Tells His Story on the Stand.

Annapolis, Md., Aug. 12.—A gruesome feature was introduced into the proceedings of the court of inquiry into the death of Lieutenant James N. Sutton, Jr., of the United States Marine corps, when the legal representative of Mrs. Sutton, the mother of the dead lieutenant, brought to the witness stand Dr. Edward M. Schaeffer, of Washington, an expert on gunshot wounds. The people in the room, spectators and interested parties alike, crowded around the table and gazed with the keenest interest upon the doctor while he placed upon the table glistening skulls, to the exterior of one of which he affixed, in little lumps on wax and steel rods, intended to indicate to the members of the court the course of the bullet in the skull of Lieutenant Sutton.

A Dramatic Pantomime. Lieutenant Adams had given a dramatic illustration of the position of Lieutenant Sutton when the fatal shot was fired. The doctor was equally dramatic as he stretched himself upon the table and showed by pantomime how, in his opinion as an expert, it was quite impossible that Lieutenant Sutton could ever have fired into his own head the shot that put an end to his life.

One of the points upon which the witness dwelt with special stress was the impossibility of Lieutenant Sutton being able, under the circumstance described in the testimony, to exert sufficient pull on the trigger of the revolver to bring down the hammer of the weapon upon the cartridge.

The evidence of Sergeant Todd, about which considerable interest had been aroused by a published alleged interview with him, while it did not confirm the official evidence some points not in consonance with evidence which had been given previously by young officers of the Marine corps.

Sergeant Todd Heard Shots.

Todd said he heard an unusual noise in the guard room and there found Lieutenants Adams and Osterman, who asked him for weapons, saying there was trouble in the camp. They got no weapons. Shortly after he heard shots fired. Later Lieutenant Roelker, in civilian attire, came to him and said he had been shot. The witness found in Roelker's pocket a drill regulation book, he said, in the pages of which he found a bullet. There was a mark as from a blow of some sort over Roelker's heart. He also found holes in Roelker's clothing and underwear. He knew nothing of the finding, next morning, of a revolver on the parade grounds. He denied portions of an interview attributed to him, but said he did see the figure of a man running and heard commands to halt and threat to fire, and shots.

Todd said he did not hear until next morning that Lieutenant Sutton had been shot.

THIRTY-FIVE HORSES BURN

Express Stables in Camden Totally Destroyed.

Camden, N. J., Aug. 12.—Thirty-five horses were roasted to death in a fire which destroyed the building of the Potter Express company, at Front and Cooper streets.

The building was three stories high. The first floor held twenty-five delivery wagons, most of which were destroyed. A runway with a gradual incline led to the second floor, and the horses were stabled there. Frank Taines, a watchman, was on the stable floor, when he smelled smoke. He investigated and found flames shooting up the runway and cutting off all chances of escape for the horses. He was slightly burned leaping down the runway to give the alarm.

A little later when the firemen arrived the stable floor was a mass of flames. The horses were valued at $10,000 and were all fine draught animals.

"Miss Santa Claus" Takes Own Life. Philadelphia, Aug. 12.—Miss Elizabeth A. Phillips, known as "Miss Santa Claus," committed suicide by inhaling gas. She was found at her home with a gas tube in her mouth. Miss Phillips was known to thousands of children for her gifts at Christmas time.

Hay Fever CURED.

Victims of This Malady Find Relief in a Brand New Form of Treatment.
 NEW YORK.—A large number of hay fever cases were cured last season by the Senpina treatment and already at the commencement of the season, thousands of sufferers are seeking various methods of relief. The older methods have nearly all been abandoned and now the new Vienna Senpina treatment seems to be accomplishing wonderful results.
 The Woodworth Co., 1161 Broadway, New York City have generously offered to send a free trial of Senpina a cure for Hay Fever, Asthma and Catarrh, to all who write them. This free offer will convince many skeptics who still insist that the only preventive of this malady is a change of climate.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
 We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

WATER FOR BEES.

A western beekeeper recommends the following device for furnishing water for bees, which he thinks should be given fresh water at intervals of two or three days: He takes a keg or barrel and makes a hole near the bottom just large enough so that water will trickle out slowly on a sloping board, on which it spreads out where the bees can drink their fill without danger of drowning or being poisoned, as would be the case if they had to go to a running stream or nearby sprayed orchards.

EVEN CURES ULCERS

Remarkable Results from Skin Remedy that Costs Almost Nothing.

No matter how bad a sore or ulcer afflicts you, it is said that Hokara the pure skin food will cure it. In fact if it doesn't cure, the purchase price will be refunded.
 L. M. Buehler the local agent for Hokara, who has sold hundreds of packages the last few weeks, says he has yet to find any form of wound or disease affecting the skin that Hokara does not heal, and its relief is so instantaneous that those who try it are simply delighted with it.
 Pimples, eczema, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, and all skin troubles are quickly cured by applying this simple skin food and tissue builder. It contains no grease or acids, and is cleanly to use.
 A liberal jar costs only 25c. and ever this is returned if Hokara fails to cure.

THE SWINEHERD

Lice will worry off flesh about as fast as you can put it on your hogs. Kerosene emulsion is good for a wash. But clean the pen out from one end to the other. If you don't, back the lice will come worse than ever.

Preventing Hog Ills.

It is more easy to prevent disease in animals than it is to cure. Hog cholera prevails more or less in all sections of the country, but in the majority of cases it is due more to the condition of herds and mismanagement in feeding than to any other cause. Hogs must have green or bulky food, also salt and charcoal. These substances are not in a direct way preventives of cholera, but they keep the animals in a more thrifty condition and render them less liable to disease.

Cement Feeding Floors.

If corn stays anywhere near its present price it is expensive to feed and very little should be wasted. The cement feeding floor is a convenience and a necessity. In very soft weather hogs will often root up their lot, but a cement floored pen will put a stop to it all. These floors can be made under shelter or out in the open, at the option or convenience of the feeder. A long house with a feeding floor in one end and a bedding department in the other is preferable.

Paralysis in Swine.

This affection most often follows overfeeding of rich nitrogenous foods to animals that are closely confined. Pigs do best when allowed a considerable range and not fed too highly. As this affection involves the spinal cord it is not only liable to prove fatal, but is not, as a rule, satisfactorily treated. First remove the cause. Cut down feed and allow plenty of range, and if not fed too liberally they will forage about and get exercise. Young pigs only partially paralyzed will often come right treated as above advised. Old animals will not often respond to any form of treatment.

Meal For Hogs.

The following meal mixture for hog feeding is recommended by a contemporary: Oats, finely ground, 50 per cent; barley, finely ground, 20 per cent; shorts, 20 per cent; oilmeal, 20 per cent.

FIGHTING FROST IN ORCHARDS

Devices in Use by Fruit Growers in Colorado.

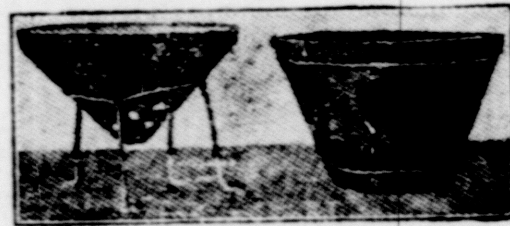

Frost season comes twice a year. The first is over; the last is in the future. But it is never too late to prepare for the next season. Early in the spring of the current year several Colorado fruit growers equipped their orchards with the so called California oil orchard heaters. One man who tried the pots bought enough equipment to protect ten acres. He was new at the work and did not have proper oil, so a portion of the time he was obliged to burn kerosene. But in spite of the fact that the thermometer fell to 23 for three or four nights in succession he was able to save the entire crop of apples on the protected area, while the fruit on the rest of his orchard which was not so protected was entirely lost. The expense for equipment and labor in this case was about $1,000, but it resulted in an $8,000 crop. This was certainly cheap insurance, and the pots are ready for future use. In another orchard the owner succeeded in saving an enormous crop of fruit, while just across a barbed wire fence in adjoining orchards the crop was an entire loss.

Since then a number of forms of heaters, both coal and oil, have been invented, and many people have equipped themselves with these appliances. The oil heaters, which were first used, are about the size and form of a ten pound lard pail made of light sheet iron. If the burning surface is much larger the heat produced is too great and the beneficial results are lost. These heaters will burn from three to five hours without refilling. In planning to protect the orchard in this way Colorado growers are using 100 of the oil pots per acre. It probably will not be necessary to use this entire number except in exceptional cases, but should that occasion arise they think it is a better plan to be ready. But for light frosts perhaps half of this number will be lighted at first; then as they burn out the other portion may be used. In this way the work of refilling can be accomplished without difficulty.

Common forms of crude petroleum are not satisfactory, for the reason that when the oil and pots become hot the oil boils over, causing much waste and loss of heat. Growers find, however, that what is known as gas oil is fairly free from this trouble, and it is the form they are now using in Colorado. It has also been demonstrated that coal pots will answer the purpose just as well as oil, but whether they will be as efficient in practice remains as yet to be seen. Colorado coal is semi-hard, lights almost as easily as wood and is therefore quite different from anything that is found in the east.

Of course the conditions of climate in Colorado are very different from those found in the east, and it may be that the western methods must be modified, but there would seem to be no reason why something of this kind might not be devised which would be practical in protecting truck crops, small fruits and even large orchards if it were thought advisable. The illustrations are so simple as to require no explanation.

Culture of Chives.

The culture of this plant is simple, as it will grow in any ordinary garden soil. It is usually propagated by division of the roots, because it does not seed readily. The roots or clumps of roots may be purchased at moderate prices. The clumps should be planted in beds about nine inches apart in rows which are two feet apart. The planting may be done in either spring or autumn. The chives may also be planted in the border of the vegetable garden and make an excellent border. As a border plant the clumps should be planted about six inches apart. The leaves will grow thickly and form a dense green mat.

Agriculture Taught.

Oklahoma is the only state which requires the teaching of agriculture in all country schools. The courses include agriculture, horticulture, stock raising, fertilizers, dairying, drainage, irrigation and grazing.

Nutrition in Milk.

In nutrition a quart of milk is said to equal a pound of beefsteak or two pounds of bread. A pound of beefsteak costs from 10 to 30 cents and two pounds of bread from 10 to 12 cents.

BRISBAIN'S LESSON.

By HARRISON SMITH.
 [Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.]

A young gentleman in a neat traveling suit alighted from a stagecoach in a frontier town. His baggage was handed down from the "boot," and he entered the office and bar of the tavern. Taking out his gold watch, he glanced at the time, then went out on the porch and looked about as though expecting some one. Not seeing what he wanted, he returned to the barroom, took a cigar out of a case, lighted it, tilted a chair up against the wall and sat down and smoked.

On one side of the bar stood the landlord, on the other a red faced, stubble bearded man in a flannel shirt and a revolver slung to his hip. From a back room came the occasional sound of "Keno!" indicating that a game was in progress.

"Tenderfoot!" remarked the stubble bearded man.

"Reckon," replied the landlord.

"Wonder what he's goin' to do in them fine clothes out yere?"

At that moment a man who may be similarly described as the one at the bar, except for two revolvers instead of one, each a foot long, staggered out of the gambling room and was about to walk up to the bar for a drink when he caught sight of the stranger. He stopped short and ran his eye from the golf cap at the top of the picture down to a pair of "toothpick" shoes at the foot. The stranger, apparently all unconscious of the attention he excited, sat in his chair, tilted up against the wall, his cigar standing straight out before him. The man from the gambling room seemed paralyzed with indignation that any such specimen of gentility should desecrate the spot. Raising one of his revolvers, he aimed deliberately at the stranger's cigar, fired and knocked it into small fragments.

The landlord dodged behind the bar, and the stubble faced man now ducked. The stranger took another cigar from his case, put his hand in his trousers pocket, fumbled for something, took out a silver match safe, lighted his cigar and proceeded to smoke as though nothing worthy of notice had happened. The man with two revolvers stood staring at him with a look of blank astonishment. That a tenderfoot from the effete east should disregard his warning not to insult the place with his effeminate presence, cigar case and Havana cigars was too much for his emotional nature. He raised his weapon and fired a second shot, removing the offensive cigar in the same manner as the first.

The equanimity of the stranger remained still unruffled. He did not even glance at his instructor in western manners. For a third time he drew forth his cigar case, selected another cigar, replaced the case and put the cigar between his lips. The landlord and the stubble faced man looked at him with an intensity of interest far greater than they had thus far shown, marked as that interest had been. They felt sure that if the young tenderfoot again disregarded the kindly warning given him as to what the wild west would accept he would pay for his obstinacy with his life. The man who had done the firing after each shot replaced his revolver at his hip, having no idea that this girl man, as he considered the stranger, was armed.

The stranger stretched out his legs, let his chair down square on the floor and thrust his hand in his trousers pocket as he had done before for his match safe. The landlord and the stubble faced man changed position so as to be farther from the line of fire of the man who was giving instruction in western manners. The pupil drew his hand from his pocket, inclosing as it was supposed his match safe, but no one saw what it was, for there was no time. In a fraction of a second a "bulldog" 45 caliber revolver barked, and the professor of western manners fell dead.

The surprise of the lookers-on was not that somebody had got killed, but that it had been the wrong man. They looked at the victim, then at the stranger, then at each other. Then the stubble faced man said:

"Would y' mind, Mr. Tenderfoot, showin' me that weapon?"

The tenderfoot displayed a short, ugly looking pistol.

"Who might y' be, stranger?" asked the landlord, eyeing the owner of the gun curiously.

"I'm Brisbain, owner of Brisbain's ranch. I've been down east on a visit to my folks. Just got back. Expect to find my man here about now with a horse. Seen anything of him?"

At that moment a mounted man and a led horse darkened the door of the cabin. Mr. Brisbain returned the salute of his man, mounted the led horse, and both rode away, leaving the instructor in western manners lying on the floor to be attended to by the landlord and the stubble faced man.

"Reckon," said the latter, scratching his head, "y' can't most always tell by a man's clothes how safe it is to fool with him."

"Specially if y' don't know the kind of gun he carries. Them 'bulldogs' is turrable dangerous at short range. D'y' know who the feller is?"

"Brisbain he said his name was."

"And do y' know who Brisbain is?"

"No."

"He's a chap as come out yere a matter o' five year ago from Chicago to start a ranch—black sheep or sumpin of a rich family. Served an enlistment. He shoots to kill. Come, help me out with this."

And they removed the corpse.

An Anatomical Wonder.

A certain highly respected congressman makes many queer blunders of speech. A constituent, visiting him recently, complained of the shabbiness of a pair of ink stained crash trousers that he had on.

"A man of your position," said the constituent reproachfully, "ought to wear handsomer trousers than those." The congressman, offended, answered reproachfully:

"My trousers may be shabby, but they cover a warm and honest heart."

SEARCHING FOR MURDERER IN ADAMS COUNTY

Much Excitement Prevails in Adams County when it is Learned that Maryland Murderer is Supposed to be Coming here. Many Clues Run Down. Suspicious Man at Two Taverns and Guldens.

Great excitement has prevailed in Gettysburg and all over the county since it was learned here on Thursday evening that an escaped murderer who jumped from a rapidly moving passenger train near York was supposed to be heading in this direction. The fugitive escaped from Sheriff Hager of Cecil County, Maryland, who had brought him all the way from Santa Rosa California, where he had given himself up. Detective Wilson ran down numerous clues all of which so far have found to be false.

The man who has confessed to his guilt is 23 years of age, 5 feet, 8 inches in height, weight about 140 pounds, wears a gray suit, hat and shirt, no collar or necktie and has a slight growth of hair on his chin.

Sheriff Hager, from whom the man made his escape, learned that his charge was making his way toward Adams County and Thursday afternoon drove from Hanover to Hunterstown and from there to Granite Station, later returning to Hanover. Shortly after he left Granite Station, Mr. John S. Smith of that place saw a man answering the description and had a short talk with him but did not know he was wanted for anything. Later in the evening, Mrs. Stallsmith saw him again and Detective Wilson was at once notified.

Mr. Wilson spent a busy evening notifying all points in the county to be on the look-out for the man and laying his lines for the fugitive. The night freights were closely watched, but no trace of the man was found.

This morning it was believed that the man was to be caught. Word was received from Two Taverns that a man answering exactly the description of the murderer had been there and was on his way to Barlow. Detective Wilson and Burgess Holtzworth at once started in a team for that section. Sheriff Hager was also following up the man who proved to be the same as the one who was seen at Granite and the officers caught him near the home of William Keefe near Mount Joy church. The clue proved to be false however, though there were some points of similarity between the suspected man and the one really wanted.

Bonneauville, Hunterstown, and other places in the county also sent in reports of suspicious characters being seen but these clues also proved false. Several strangers in Gettysburg were under close surveillance for a time but later allowed to go.

A wire from York to The Times this afternoon states that there is nothing new in the case to report.

SLEW FARM HAND

Johnson, the fugitive, was employed as a farm hand in Cecil county, about 12 miles from Elkton. He and James McAllister, a man from a neighboring farm, disappeared on the afternoon of May 31, and a week later McAllister's body was found in the woods nearby, partly covered with brush and leaves. His head was terribly gashed, indicating clearly that he had been murdered, and search was begun for Johnson, $100 reward being offered for his capture. Early in July the man gave himself up to the authorities at Santa Rosa, saying that his crime was haunting him. Sheriff Hager started with requisition papers for the prisoner.

The whole way across the continent Johnson gave the officer no trouble. The youth was a slow speaking and apparently mild mannered youth, and the sheriff made every effort to make the long trip as comfortable as possible for both. Whenever it was possible, stops were made over night at cities or towns along the route, and Johnson was placed in the local jail while the sheriff obtained much needed rest at a hotel. When it was necessary to spend the night upon the train, the prisoner slept in his shackles. Occasionally he was permitted slight liberties, and when a day's journey of home, he asked to have his irons removed for a few minutes while he made his toilet, Hager complied.

LEAPED FROM PLATFORM

Both men occupied bunks on a sleeper, which was the rear car of the express, leaving York at 7.35 o'clock, Thursday morning. Just beyond York Johnson requested that his leg irons be removed that he might go to the wash room. This was done and a few minutes later the prisoner asked to have his hands freed while he entered the toilet. Hager removed the handcuffs and was busying himself with his own toilet when a small boy, another passenger on the car, came running up to him with the startling information that his prisoner had slipped out of the toilet room and jumped from the rear platform.

At this time the train was proceeding at so high a rate of speed that Hager could not at first believe the story, but rushing to the toilet room he found it empty. The officer then summoned the conductor as quickly as possible, asking that the train be stopped in order that he might take up the search. He says the conductor declined to do this, stating that he could get back as quickly as any other way by going on to New Freedom, about 20 miles south of York, where the train made its only regular stop between York and Baltimore.

He had no alternative and did not reach York in time to notify the authorities before 9.30 by which time the man had gotten a good start. A pursuing posse was at once formed and the search started.

FOREST FIRES ARE CONQUERED

Many Acres of Valuable Timberland are Burned over but Fire Fighters Win out after Hard Battle. Threatened Caledonia.

The forest fires which have been destroying much valuable timberland on South Mountain for the past few days have at last been conquered after doing great damage. The flames were finally extinguished Thursday night.

For several days there raged on the South Mountain south and west of Carlisle, two forest fires of great magnitude. The one was larger than the other and the smaller was on the mountains just back of Mount Holly Springs, while the other traversed thousands of acres of burned over and fresh timberland just across the ridge from Leesburg and southeast from Shippensburg.

The fire started on the range of hills a few miles north of Pine Grove Furnace last Monday night, and a force of men from that place went to fight it. Fire lines were built to protect the southern sections, and the winds turned the flames to the north. With the assistance of the winds, and the vegetation and foliage on the mountain tops as well as in the low lands being parched and dried by the excessive heat and dry weather of the past several weeks, the fire traveled at an alarming pace, and by Tuesday night had reached the last range of hills overlooking the Cumberland Valley. On three ends of the mountains tapering to an end in the Valley the flames could easily be seen.

The greater part of the ground burned over was the same as traversed by the fires of last spring, and the damage will not be so great. Lands of the South Mountain Land Company and others have been burned over. Several Harrisburg, Carlisle, Reading and Philadelphia men are interested in these organizations.

For a time the forestry reserve at Mont Alto and Caledonia was threatened.

LEIVELSBERGER-JENKINS

Conewago Chapel was the scene of a nuptial mass at 7 o'clock Thursday morning, when Miss Clara M. Jenkins was united in marriage to John Leivelsberger, by Rev. Eugene Haltermeyer, rector of the church.

The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Fabian Breighner, the latter being a daughter of the groom.

Following the ceremony a reception was held and a wedding breakfast served at the home of the bride, at Edgemoor, at which the relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present.

The bride is a daughter of the late Judge John Jenkins and Mrs. Jane Jenkins, of Edgemoor. The groom for a number of years has been sexton of old Conewago Chapel, and was a widower.

Mr. and Mrs. Leivelsberger left over the Northern Central railroad on a wedding trip. On their return they will reside at Edgemoor.

BIGLERVILLE 5 YORK SPRINGS 5

Exciting Tie Game of Base Ball Played at York Springs. Home Team Scores Four Runs in Last Inning. Darkness Stops Game.

York Springs and Biglerville crossed bats Wednesday in York Springs for the fourth time this season the game being called at the end of the eighth inning on account of darkness, score 5-5.

Funt and Eckert for Biglerville and Dr. McCarriar and Howe for York Springs were the officiating batteries. The pitchers were about equally matched, seven hits being scored off of Dr. McCarriar, eight off of Funt, the Doctor causing 9 to strike out, and Funt 12.

In three different innings with the bases full and one out caused by a base on balls and errors, Dr. McCarriar tightened up not allowing a score.

The score stood 5 to 1 at the beginning of the eighth when two hits, two errors and a batter hit brought in four runs for York Springs, tying the score.

J. Starry, R. Starry and Howe starred for York Springs, each having two hits, J. Starry a three base hit R. Starry two base hits. Eckert for Biglerville had two singles.

WATER DISPUTE INVOLVES CABINET

Secretary Ballinger and Forester Pinchot May Retire.

QUARREL OVER WATER SITES

Secretary of Interior Accused of Ignoring Roosevelt Policy of Conserving Natural Resources of the Country. Taft May Investigate.

Washington, Aug. 13.—In the absence of President Taft, Secretary Ballinger, Secretary Wilson and Gifford Pinchot, chief of the forestry division in the department of agriculture, the outcome of the controversy between Mr. Pinchot and Secretary Ballinger is a matter of speculation in Washington. There are rumors that it may lead to the retirement of both principals—Mr. Ballinger from his position as secretary of the interior and Mr. Pinchot from the forestry service. Mr. Wilson, the veteran secretary of agriculture, may also become unpleasantly involved if he stands by the position of his subordinate, Mr. Pinchot. Roundabout information from Beverly is to the effect that President Taft has as yet taken no cognizance of Mr. Pinchot's criticism of Secretary Ballinger's policy regarding the withdrawal of public lands that was ordered by former President Roosevelt to conserve the water rights located within them.

Origin of the Trouble. The trouble began over the withdrawal of nearly a million acres of public domain by order of President Roosevelt, through Secretary of the Interior Garfield. When Mr. Ballinger entered upon his office as secretary of the interior he revoked this order, on the ground that the lands had not been legally withdrawn for forest reserves but for the purpose of preventing the grabbing of water rights by alleged electric power trusts. The matter was brought to President Taft's attention and he directed the re-withdrawal of such lands as came clearly under the law for withdrawal.

It is now claimed that only 25,000 of the million acres have been withdrawn and that what is known as the "power trust" has been busy locating power sites on much of the remainder. President Taft directed that the geological survey make investigation and report where power sites are located on the public domain, and indicated that he would protect them from being monopolized by any trust.

It is thought here that the president will make this controversy a subject of thorough investigation when he goes on his extended western trip next month. If he continues of the same opinion he was last spring, when the withdrawal of lands was first presented to him, he will probably stand by Secretary Ballinger, as he then believed that the withdrawal of land under the forestry reserve act for the purpose of conserving water rights was not exactly in accordance with the law.

The differences between Secretary Ballinger and Mr. Pinchot are so acute that it is surmised here that the latter will have to leave the service if Mr. Ballinger is sustained by the president. Should Secretary Wilson back up his chief of the forestry service he may be asked to resign from the cabinet.

GIRLS SAVE $5000 IN FIRE

Smoke Overcomes Heroines of $100,000 Blaze in Buffalo Packing House. Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Fire in the East Buffalo plant of the Jacob Dool Packing company caused $100,000 damage. The fire started in the hog and beef dressing department. The office buildings were threatened for a time, and the office force, made up largely of young women, fought through dense clouds of smoke to remove $5000 in cash to a place of safety.

Criticism Causes Suicide.

Punkatowney, Pa., Aug. 13.—Although in apparent good health, D. F. Deemer, one of the most prominent farmers of Brookville and superintendent of the Red Bank Farmers' Telephone company, committed suicide. His body was found in a fish pond. Deemer had been brooding over the criticism of stockholders of the Red Bank Farmers' Telephone company regarding his method of conducting the business.

Enlisted Man Kills Himself.

Wilmington, Del., Aug. 13.—Sergeant Max Block, of the coast artillery, stationed at Fort Dupont, committed suicide by shooting himself with his rifle, while in his room. He had propped the rifle against the wall and tied a string to the trigger, which he pulled, after placing his body against the muzzle. Money losses are believed to have caused Block to kill himself.

Murder in Chicago Street Car. Chicago, Aug. 13.—Thomas Katsnes shot and killed Victoria Kawalec in a crowded street car. She was formerly a waitress in his restaurant.

DELAWARE SHERIFF ESCAPES DEATH

Prisoners at Georgetown Were Ready to Strike Him Down.

Georgetown, Del., Aug. 13.—Joseph B. West, sheriff of Sussex county, narrowly escaped being killed at the county jail. Four colored prisoners, including Henry Carter, Sussex county's famous desperado, who were allowed access to the jail yard, it is said, had plotted to murder the sheriff when he entered with the noon meal.

Luckily for the sheriff, a trustworthy prisoner, who refused to take part in the affair, managed to conceal himself near the gate, determined to apprise West of the waiting danger or die in the attempt.

When the approach of the officer was heard, the four would-be assassins stood with heavy clubs, ready to crush out his brains. The sheriff had the gate about one-third open when he noticed the other prisoner concealed behind the tree, who signaled him not to enter.

The sheriff retreated and returned with four deputies. The four prisoners were handcuffed and chained to the floor of a steel cell, and will not be allowed in the yard during the balance of their confinement.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 13.—A special dispatch received here from Teheran says that Mohammed Ali, the deposed shah of Persia, will leave the country

PERSIA'S NEW SHAH.

Aug. 17, and that the young shah, who is his favorite son, is downcast at the prospect of a separation from his parents. According to reports current in Teheran, the youthful ruler recently made an unsuccessful attempt at flight, and when he was frustrated in this he tried to commit suicide. The government is considering the possibility of his abdication in favor of some one else.

SLAYER LEAPS FROM TRAIN TO ESCAPE

Man on Way From California to Maryland Jumps to Liberty.

York, Pa., Aug. 13.—While on his way from California to answer to a charge of murder in Cecil county, Md., Scott Johnson, aged twenty-three years, jumped from the platform of a sleeping car on a Northern Central railway train, a few miles south of this city, and escaped. A posse of officers is in pursuit of the man in automobiles.

Johnson was employed on a farm near Rising Sun, Md. Last May a man named McAllister, employed on the same farm, was found murdered, and Johnson was missed. No trace was obtained of Johnson until a few weeks ago, when word was received from Santa Rosa, Cal., that Johnson had given himself up there and admitted that he killed McAllister.

Sheriff H. G. Hager, of Cecil county, then went to Santa Rosa to bring back Johnson to face trial. Arriving at Santa Rosa he secured his man and started east.

The sheriff, with his prisoner, occupied a berth on a Pullman. When about a mile or two south of this city, the prisoner obtained permission to go to the rear of the car. A small boy on the same train reported to Sheriff Hager that he saw a man leap from the platform of the car a few moments before. The sheriff got off of the train and came to York, where the local authorities were notified and posses organized.

ITALIAN BLOWN TO PIECES

He Entered Storehouse Filled With Dynamite While Smoking.

Wilmington, Del., Aug. 13.—An Italian named G. Camerdel, was blown to pieces by an explosion of 150 pounds of dynamite in a storehouse connected with a stone quarry at Woodvale, Del., near here. He was responsible for the disaster, having evidently entered the store while smoking. Two other quarrymen, who were working 100 feet away, were badly injured by pieces of wood being forced into their bodies.

Boy Confesses He Caused Five Fires.

Trenton, N. J., Aug. 13.—Elmer Felters, twelve years old, confessed, following his arrest here, that he had started the five fires which have destroyed property during the past ten days of his employer, Addison Perrine, a farmer living near this city. The Perrine house and barns were included. "I like to see things burn," was his only explanation.

Nelson and Welch to Fight.

London, Aug. 13.—Freddie Welch, the English pugilist, has arranged for a forty-five round glove contest with Battling Nelson, which is to be fought in the United States in September. The battle will be for the world's lightweight championship.

Preparing For Menelik's Death.

Addis Ababa, Abyssinia, Aug. 13.—In view of the illness of King Menelik, full powers of regency have been granted to Ras Tesama, guardian of Prince Lidj Peassu, heir presumptive.

Cures Baby's Summer Ills—FREE

The mother should watch her baby very carefully these hot days. If it refuses to play and to eat, if it is peevish and crying, look to the action of its bowels, for there lies the basis of health. Be careful of its diet. The food and water are germ laden. The fruit is too often over-ripe or unripe. If it has any indication of sickness, either in the form of constipation or diarrhea, give it a reliable tonic laxative like DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN. This remedy is a standard in thousands of American homes for just such purposes. It is a favorite with children because its taste is pleasant, and it never gripes. It is the one remedy best suited to the cure of constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, biliousness, sick headache, summer complaint, etc. It is equally as good for grown people, and we know thousands who no longer use strong salts, purgative waters, tablets, pills and such things, but take the surer, more gentle and pleasant DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN. It can be obtained of any druggist at 50 cents or $1 a large bottle. The entire family can use it, and as these ailments arise suddenly the head of the house should see to it that a bottle of DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN is always at hand.

Those who have never yet used DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN and would like to make a test of it before buying in the regular way of their druggist, can obtain a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE either for themselves or any member of their family by sending name and address to the doctor. The sample will be sent to your home free of charge. In this way you can find out what it will do without cost. Also, if the case presents difficulties that doctors and other remedies seem unable to overcome, write a letter to Dr. Caldwell explaining how the person suffers and he will send you a "SUMMER ADVICE" bearing a doctor's stamp, containing a full and complete advice on diet, hygiene, etc., in hot weather—a very important subject. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 521 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

An Old-Time Prescription

In a modern product. From time immemorial sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost every one knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair and making it grow. In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready to use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. Such a preparation is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, which is sold by all leading druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or which is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortland St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by People's Drug Store.

COURT HOLDS THAW IS CRAZY

Justice Mills Dismisses Slay-er's Habeas Corpus Writ.

GOES BACK TO MATTEAWAN

His Release Would Be Dangerous to Public Peace and Safety, Says Justice—Will Appeal to Higher Court For Jury Trial—Thaw's Mother Attacks Jerome.

White Plains, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Harry K. Thaw's latest attempt to gain his liberty met with complete and disheartening defeat when Supreme Court Justice Isaac N. Mills dismissed the writ of habeas corpus, and declared that "the release of the petitioner would be dangerous to the public peace and safety." The signing of an order sending Thaw back to Matteawan is all that remains to complete the failure of this latest appeal to the courts.

All the contentions of his old adversary, District Attorney Jerome, are supported, and it is declared that Thaw is still insane, still suffering from persistent delusions, and still as much a paranoiac as on the day he shot Stanford White.

Will Continue Fight For Liberty.

Thaw received the news with an outward calmness which appeared, however, more forced than real. The members of his family and his attorney seemed stunned by the thoroughness of their defeat. Thaw contented himself with the assertion that he was not disheartened, and would at once continue his fight for liberty. "My next efforts," he said, "will be centered upon the court of appeals, through which I expect to secure a hearing before a jury in my effort to have my commitment to Matteawan set aside."

Justice Mills' Opinion.

Justice Mills in his opinion reaches three formal conclusions: That Thaw was insane when he killed White; that he has not yet recovered, and that public peace and safety would be endangered by setting him at large. He upholds District Attorney Jerome's contentions that Thaw still cherishes delusion regarding the practices of Stanford White and his associates. He characterizes Evelyn Thaw's tale of the Madison Square tower room, and similar stories about White told at the sanity hearing, as "wild and grossly improbable, evidently to any normal mind grossly exaggerated." He asserts his belief in the testimony of Susan Merrill regarding Thaw's alleged pervert practices, and points out the contrast between Thaw's chivalrous attitude as a protector of young American womanhood and his private life.

Justice Mills expressed deep sympathy for Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw, the prisoner's mother, and her exposition of the "horrors of Matteawan" on the stand evidently prompted his recommendation that Thaw be allowed greater privileges at that institution.

At the same time he gently chided Mrs. Thaw for her course of District Attorney Jerome, of whom he said: "I find no evidence of any heartlessness or undue zeal on his part."

Not the least significant sentence in Justice Mills' decision, in the opinion of lawyers here, is one which declares that Thaw's "delusions had become fixed and established prior to the time of his marriage." It is pointed out that this sentence may, if desired, prove grounds for proceedings by Mrs. Evelyn Thaw for the annulment of her marriage.

Thaw's Mother Flays Jerome.

Mrs. Mary Copley Thaw gave out the following statement:

"Let no one imagine for a moment on reading this opinion of Judge Mills that it means a victory for the district attorney of the county of New York."

"One by one the delusions with which he and his alienists started out were proven, each by the mouths of several witnesses to be stubborn facts, that would not down at his bidding."

"Every prop was taken from under that arrogant, vindictive persecutor of a sane acquitted man."

"So baffled was he that when he rose to make his closing speech (for argument it was not), he had more the appearance of a schoolboy compelled to say a piece than the sometimes courageous, mature sophist who dominates the courts of his own judicial district, except when wealthy malefactors are under trial."

"It is impossible to fathom the workings of the human mind, and so the reason for this totally unexpected and cruel decision of the trial judge must remain a mystery. Meanwhile, my son, my daughter and I have no alternative but to take up again the burden I had every reason to believe was behind us forever. We, exiled from our two homes and all the regular flow of life, will remain close to the gate, and so help the son and brother to endure an existence which, if perpetual, would be far worse than death itself, trusting in God's overruling providence in His own good time to vindicate the right."

Kaiser Receives Ambassador White.

Cassel, Germany, Aug. 13.—Henry White, American ambassador to France, and Mrs. White had luncheon with Emperor William and the empress at Wilhelmshofe.

BUTTON INQUIRY NEAR END

Taking of Testimony Ends and Law-yers Begin Summing Up.

Annapolis, Md., Aug. 13.—After an investigation extending over a period of more than three weeks, the naval court of inquiry into the death of Lieutenant James N. Sutton, U. S. M. C., here on October 13, 1907, finished the taking of testimony. Today was given over to the summing up.

The court will then prepare its report and forward it to the navy department as required by the precept.

In connection with the closing hours, Major Leonard, judge advocate, furnished a surprise when he stated that he would have no opening address to make in behalf of the government, unless something might be said by the attorneys or other parties to the investigation that would require explanation or reply. Commander Hood, president of the board, said that he did not think the court would consume much time in arriving at its conclusions.

WU TING FANG RECALLED

Washington, Aug. 13.—Chinese Minister Wu Ting Fang has been recalled from Washington and ordered to Peking for further assignment. His successor will be Chang Yin Tang, formerly charges d'affaires at Madrid, and now deputy vice president of foreign affairs.

Mr. Wu is now in Peru, to which country he has been credited along with the United States.

WASHINGTON PARK WILL BE REBUILT

Pleasure Resort Wiped Out by Fire to Rise Again.

Camden, N. J., Aug. 13.—While flames which destroyed Washington Park on the Delaware were still blazing, William J. Thompson, the principal owner of the amusement place, and a leader in the Democratic party of New Jersey, announced that the work of rebuilding the place will begin at once.

There is, however, one building that can never be replaced. The Washington Park hotel, where the fire started, was totally destroyed. The building was erected one hundred and six years ago by General Joshua Howells, a revolutionary patriot. It was used by him as a residence.

The fire, which was caused by a pot of fat boiling over in the kitchen of the hotel, spread with alarming rapidity. An hour after it started fourteen buildings were in ashes. The total loss is estimated at $119,000, partially covered by insurance. Thousands of excursionists were at the park when the fire broke out. Their lives, however, were not endangered. While the blaze was at its height, three large excursions, those of the Retail Grocers, Wilmington, Del.; of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church, of the same place, and the Veteran Employees' association, of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, arrived. The excursionists expected to enjoy the annual clam bake, but instead witnessed a highly spectacular fire. The clams were roasted, but not in the manner expected. They were in a big ice box in the hotel when it caught fire.

TAFT'S BUSY DAY

The President and Postmaster General Settling Patronage Question.

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 13.—Today is President Taft's busy day. Postmaster General Hitchcock arrived here and placed a number of patronage questions before the president. Mr. Hitchcock's recommendations have principally to do with the south, where he knows the situation in each state by heart. It has been particularly hard for the president to straighten out patronage matters in some of these states, Kentucky among others, and he had several futile conferences with Senator Bradley and the Republican members of congress from the Blue Grass state before leaving Washington.

EDUCATOR KILLED BY TRAIN

Prof. Wilhelm Bernhardt, of Washington, Meets Death in Vermont.

Burlington, Vt., Aug. 13.—Professor Wilhelm Bernhardt, of Washington, D. C., a well known educator and author, was struck and killed by a train on the Rutland railroad here. He was spending the summer here. Professor Bernhardt was about sixty years of age, and for many years was director of German in the Washington high schools.

VAN SANT HEADS THE GRAND ARMY

Minnesota Man Elected Commander-in-Chief.

220,616 VETERANS ENROLLED

Retiring Commander-in-Chief Nevius Gives Statistics of the Organization and Scores the Railroads—Mrs. Jennie Berry Heads Woman's Relief Corps.

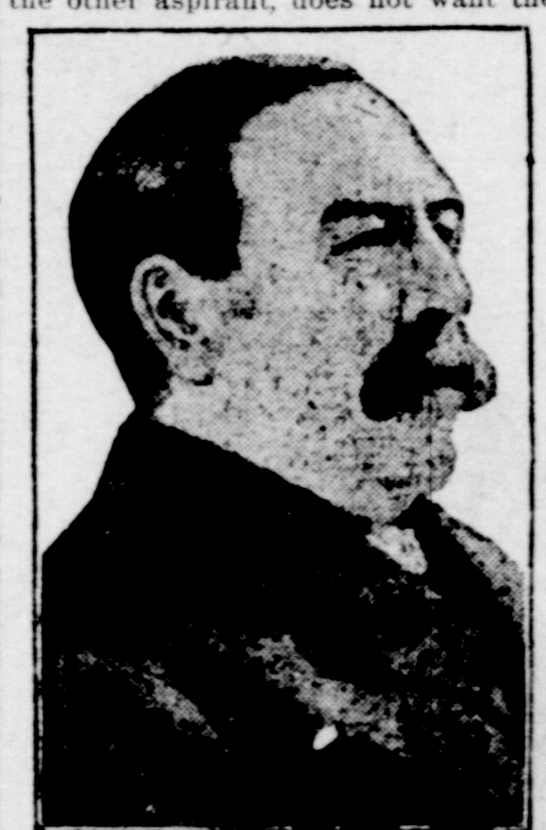

Salt Lake City, Aug. 13.—Samuel R. Van Sant, of Minnesota, was elected commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic. Van Sant won over Judge William A. Keacham, of Indiana, by a vote of 587 to 156.

Mrs. Jennie L. Berry, of Des Moines, was elected national president of the Women's Relief corps.

In addition to Commander Van Sant the following Grand Army officers were elected:

Senior vice commander, W. M. Bostaph, Ogden; junior vice commander, Judge Alfred Beers, Bristol, Conn.; surgeon general, W. H. Lemon, Lawrence, Kan.

A poll indicates that the chances of St. Louis for the forty-fourth encampment are much brighter. Atlantic City, the other aspirant, does not want the SAMUEL R. VAN SANT, encampment in August, and the veterans are loath to change the month of meeting.

Commander's Address.

In his address to the encampment Commander-in-Chief Nevius spoke in part as follows:

"I was greeted with great cordiality on my visit in the southern departments and I am satisfied that, were it not for those who did not participate in the great struggle, but who are still laboring to keep alive the lost cause, there would be no difficulty in cementing the bonds of union between the north and the south."

"On Dec. 31, 1907, the members in good standing of the Grand Army of the Republic numbered 225,157, and there were 13,489 on the suspended list. There were remaining in good standing on Dec. 31, 1908, 220,616, and $539 remaining suspended."

"The number of comrades reported as having died between Dec. 31, 1907, and Dec. 31, 1908, was 10,124. Our gains during the fiscal year by muster, transfer, reinstatement and by gain from delinquent reports total 21,154."

Scores Railroads.

The speaker told of difficulties encountered in securing the round trip rate of one fare to Salt Lake encampment, saying:

"You will observe, comrades, that I have labored earnestly and zealously with the great railroad corporations in the interest of the G. A. R., for a reasonable rate to and from our encampment, for the men who from '61 to '65 bore the brunt of battle and saved the Union—one and indivisible—and that the great railroad corporations which girdle it with their tracks have no feeling of patriotism and make no concessions to the comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic."

FIVE DIE IN FIRE

Caught Asleep in House and Could Not Escape.

Hancock, Mich., Aug. 13.—Fire destroyed a dwelling house here during the night, and five of the sleeping inmates were burned to death. Their charred bodies were found in the ruins. The dead are Mrs. John Dionne, Amina Dionne, twelve years old; Edward Dionne, eight years old; Peter Dionne, an infant, and a girl named Racine. Mrs. Dionne died clasping her baby in her arms.

Drowns Her Two Children.

Cirkvenica, Hungary, Aug. 13.—Mme. B. F. Gavan, the wife of the Argentine consul general at Budapest, in a sudden fit of madness, drowned two of her young children in the sea here, and was restrained with difficulty from putting an end to the lives of her third child and herself.

A Beautiful Complexion

Nature's Way to Gain Rosy Glow of Youth Without Using Cosmetics.
The velvety softness and sea shell pink of the baby's skin does not come from paint, cosmetics or any artificial aid. Isn't this a suggestion of great value to the woman who wants a beautiful complexion?

Instead of spoiling the texture of her skin with cosmetics and so-called "beauty creams," let her use the new discovery, Margo, which gives a clear complexion, free from pimples, black heads and all skin blemishes, with a youthful rosy glow in the cheeks, simply by increasing the red corpuscles in the blood. It is the product of science, and gives a good complexion in the only scientific way. Margo is in tablet form, and a 50c. package will do a world of good.

L. M. Buehler has the local agency, and recognizes its true value by offering to refund the money if it does not do all that is claimed for it.

If you want a beautiful, youthful skin, better try Margo on this money back plan.

Extraordinary Hair Tonic

It Won't Grow Hair on Bald Heads
Unlike all other hair restorers, Parisian Sage won't grow hair on bald heads. Neither will it grow hair on china eggs, door knobs or hitching posts.
One claim is about as sensible as the other.
If your head is bald and you want to cover it with hair, get a wig.
Parisian Sage, the quick-acting hair rejuvenator, is of no use to bald headed people; but for people who have thin hair, falling hair and dandruff, and where the bald spot is just beginning to show, there is nothing in this wide world that will give such satisfactory results as Parisian Sage.
Parisian Sage is guaranteed by People's Drug Store to drive out dandruff and stop falling hair in two weeks, or money back. It stops itching scalp in two days, and keeps the scalp cool and free from odors in warm weather.
There is nothing on earth that will so quickly turn dull, faded hair into lustrous and luxuriant hair as Parisian Sage.
Try a bottle of Parisian Sage at People's Drug Store risk. Use it for a week, and you will have no use for the ordinary tonics. Parisian Sage is delightfully perfumed, free from grease and stickiness, and a large bottle costs but 50 cents. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every bottle.

A VIRGINIA SNAP.
Alfalfa is proving the agricultural salvation of many a farm in the south Atlantic states which has been depleted as a result of the continuous growing of cotton for many years. In illustration of this may be mentioned the case of one Virginia farmer who now has 600 acres in alfalfa, which produces 3,000 tons of hay annually, worth $12 per ton. And he is on the point of installing a plant for grinding the hay into alfalfa meal, which fetches $34 per ton, or about the price of bran. This looks like a sort of agricultural graft that a good many owners of farms favorably located might work, not only to the advantage of their pocketbooks, but for the good of the land too.

THE PERSONAL EQUATION.
A point that is often overlooked in judging of the measure of success of this or that plan in farming, whether it be in the raising of blooded stock, producing record crops of corn or grain or using new and up to date machinery, is what may be termed the personal equation or the man in the case, the thinking and reasoning attachment, upon whom, after all, success depends more than upon any other single factor. It is because of this uncertain quantity that one man here falls down with pure bred stock, another there has no time for the silo, while a third may consider cream separators and Babcock testers a delusion and a snare.

Man's Ideal of Character.
Every man has at times in his mind the ideal of what he should be, but is not. This ideal may be high and complete or it may be quite low and insufficient, yet in all men that really seek to improve it is better than the actual character. Man never falls so low that he can see nothing higher than himself.—Theodore Parker.

Family Secrets.
There is a most amiable woman in Louisville who is noted among her friends for her habit of "saying things without thinking." Her daughter was entertaining a young man on the front porch, and the mother was standing at the fence talking to the neighbor next door. In the yard of the latter was a baby a little over a year old, and it was trying to walk.
"You shouldn't let it walk so young," advised the thoughtless matron. "Wait until it's a little older. I let my daughter walk when she was about that age, and it made her awfully bow legged."
The young man began to talk energetically about the weather.

Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Flesh-Forming Food

When you buy a package of Samose, the great flesh forming food, weigh yourself and see how much you gain in the first week's use. L. M. Buehler will tell of many of his customers who a month or so ago were thin, pale and haggard, but who are now, through the use of Samose, plump, strong and happy, with perfect health and attractive flesh. He has seen so many instances of the wonderful power of Samose to restore the weak and sick to strength and health, and to make good natural flesh that they give their personal guarantee with every package of Samose they sell to refund the money if it does not prove satisfactory.

Samose is a pure preparation, and can be used with absolute confidence by the most delicate. It gives remarkable results with children who are weak and run down and without appetite. It builds up the thin, pale, puny girl and woman to perfect plumpness and health. It is the only flesh forming food of its kind and in addition, it strengthens every organ of the body, restoring strength and health to the whole system.

Made the Duke Feel Cheap.
The second Duke of Wellington, though far from being stingy, was in many odd ways economical. He discovered one day some champagne which he considered and which doubtless was quite good enough for a ball supper and which had the advantage of being extraordinarily low in price. He ordered the quantity required and was rejoicing in his excellent bargain when on opening one of the papers he encountered the following advertisement: "Try our celebrated champagne at 38 shillings a dozen, as ordered by his grace the Duke of Wellington for his forthcoming ball at Apsley House."

SHETLAND PONIES.

Raised With Profit in Several States. Their Good Points.
The business of raising Shetland ponies has become a profitable and important industry in several states. The little animals seem to thrive better in the northern and middle states than in the extreme south, doubtless because of their origin in the rigorous climate of the Shetland Islands. This is true only with reference to their breeding, for the Shetland pony is a true cosmopolitan, at home in all lands and in all climates, and is perhaps unequaled by any other animal in points of hardiness and endurance. In describing a Shetland's points an authority writes as follows:
"The head should not be too fine, and the eye should be prominent, the ears of good size and set well forward. The neck is thick and crested high up, so that the impression is conveyed that the crest extends right up to the ears. This gives appearances of great strength in the neck and, added to the broad shoulders, enables the pony to draw great weights. The neck should be of good length and the back, of course, short. The ribs should be very well sprung, any indication of slab-sidedness flavoring of the Icelanders. The quarters should be as round as an apple and the tail set on moderately high.
In short, the Shetland pony should pass muster when judged by the points of a horse, and there must be no appearance of delicacy about him. Nothing effeminate will do for a Shetland stallion. A poor neck is a fatal fault, and for the same reason nothing coarse will do for a mare. The geldings should be a sturdy medium between the two. Another fatal fault is an inclination to legginess. In fact, short legs are so characteristic of the Shetland that a leggy one is a rarity to be met with, and if a pony is really leggy he is certain to have Icelandic blood in his veins.

"So in selecting a pony look for one that is short legged, sturdy in build, thick in the chest, strong in his neck, round in his quarters, pleasant faced and with a nice mane and foretop. The foretop should come between the ears from the top of the crest, and the pony's legs should be sound and strong. The pastern should be springy and the action smart and trappy as possible. The eye will in the most of cases disclose the disposition, but it is very rarely indeed that a pure bred Shetland is either pigheaded or vicious."

Silo Notes.
The silo is a sign of dairy prosperity. A cow to the acre is not impossible when silage is fed.
Silage makes splendid sheep feed when used judiciously.
The time is coming when silos will be as numerous as corncribs.
The man who has the largest milk checks is the man who feeds silage.
The silage fed cow is very easy to pick out, especially in the early summer or late spring.
Remember it's easier to fill and easier to feed from two small silos than one large one. The silage will keep better too.
The silo is appreciated at no season more than just between winter and summer feeds. The hay is usually low, and the cattle are hungry for green, succulent feed. Silage bridges over the season and brings the stock out in good condition.—Kimball's Dairy Farmer.

Streaky Butter.
Streaky or mottled butter may be caused by the salt or it may be due to the working of the butter. The salt is so evenly diffused in the finest kind of butter that, as is shown by a microscope, every grain is surrounded by a film of clear and transparent brine, which points out the necessity of avoiding the overworking of the butter before the salt is added. In the first working every particle of the milk should be got rid of, but enough clear water should be left to dissolve every grain of salt in twelve hours before the next working. If this is done there will be but little danger of streakiness in the butter, but to get the best results the salt should be very finely ground.

Bokhara Sheep.
The department of agriculture is seriously considering the introduction into this country of Bokhara sheep, from which comes the fur called Persian lamb. All astrakhan fur is now raised on territory tributary to the Caspian sea. The best fur is taken from the lamb when it is only four or five days old. The Bokhara sheep also makes good mutton.

LOVE AND DEAFNESS.

By F. A. MITCHEL.
[Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.]
Fergus MacAllister, a Scotch Presbyterian minister, having lost the power of speaking distinctly, became a burden on his congregation. In order to get rid of him they suggested that he go to a more salubrious climate and build up another church. There were many English speaking tourists in southern Italy, and the pastor was packed off to Naples, where, instead of succeeding in establishing a church, he supported himself and his family by entertaining said tourists in what is called in Europe a pension, in America a boarding house.
There came to Mr. MacAllister's pension an American party consisting of Mr. Blobson, an old gentleman deaf as a post; Mrs. Harker, a widow, deaf as Mr. Blobson, and Alice Harker, her daughter, aged twenty-five, a confirmed globe trotter. Miss Harker was especially anxious that her mother, whom she found it inconvenient to drag about with her, should in some way be soothed. The Harkers had met Mr. Blobson in Paris, and they had all traveled together to Naples. On the way Miss Harker had conceived the idea of marrying her mother to Mr. Blobson, though how the two were to get on together, both suffering from the same physical defect, she did not consider.
The beginning of the party's stay with the MacAllisters was not auspicious. Mr. MacAllister at dinner, after his guests had been seated, bent his head and began to speak in a low tone.
"What's that?" asked Blobson.
The host paused, somewhat disconcerted, then, without noticing the interruption, began again.
"Speak louder. I'm hard of hearing," persisted Blobson.
The Scotchman raised his head and spoke as loud as his impaired voice would admit. But it was no use. Blobson drowned his words with his demands for louder speech.
"Ye irreverent mon!" MacAllister exclaimed angrily. "I'm saying grace."
It seemed as though all the deaf tourists in Europe were destined to meet at MacAllister's boarding house.
Sir Douglas McCracken, born deaf and dumb, an old friend of the dominie, was expected to visit Naples and during his stay was to be a member of the household. Alice Harker, who was used to talking with her mother by the finger sign language, was asked to assist in entertaining him. One morning on coming in from sightseeing she was told that Sir Douglas had arrived. Entering the drawing room, she saw a man with a young face and a bald head reading a guidebook. Seeing a pretty girl, he rose deferentially. She addressed him in the sign language, and he replied in kind.
Now, it happened that this meeting involved a case of love at first sight. For an hour the two piled their fingers in mutual entertainment, and Miss Harker began to think how singular it would be if she succeeded in marrying her mother to the deaf Mr. Blobson and she herself should marry the deaf and dumb Sir Douglas. Presently the dominie came in with a man as old as himself and introduced him as the real, original and only Sir Douglas McCracken.
"And this gentleman?" Alice asked, pointing to the man she had been conversing with.
"He's Sir Douglas' son, Angus."
"And I've been talking to the young lady," said Angus, "supposing her to be a deaf mute."
There's nothing like sightseeing excursions for love-making. Angus McCracken and Alice Harker walked together on the hills overlooking Naples and its picturesque bay, sailing to the island of Capri, spooned in its celebrated blue grotto and drove from Sorrento to over the most beautiful drive in the world to Amalfi. Proposals often come at opportune moments, and in this case the declaration was made while the two were looking down into the crater of Vesuvius. However, Alice was ready for it, and while giving her reply she was meditating upon a plan to bring about the union of her mother with Mr. Blobson.
She told Angus McCracken that while her mother was on her hands she could not marry, but she hoped to make a match for the old lady, after which she would be pleased to become his wife. Angus, realizing that his happiness depended on the success of the scheme, forthwith devoted himself to Mr. Blobson, sounding all the while Mrs. Harker's praises and suggesting what a fine thing it would be for him if he could secure her for a wife. Blobson was finally convinced and told Angus that he would propose. Angus communicated the news to Alice. Alice in turn confided it to her mother.
Angus McCracken and Alice Harker, although they had plighted their troth coughing up the fumes of a volcano, considered that a romantic situation would be most effective in closing the matter between the elder lovers. The party were at Sorrento at the time. On a road winding up the cliff a short distance from their hotel is a house of entertainment with a square open cupola overlooking the enticing bay and surrounding mountains. The youngsters drove their elders there one moonlight evening and pushed them up into the cupola, Angus giving the old man the tip that he had better make his proposal then and there. When the couple descended Alice drew her mother away and asked her if the proposal had been made.
"I suppose so," said the old lady, "but I couldn't hear what he said."
Mr. Blobson told Angus that he had "told his story." Angus told Alice, Alice told her mother, and the affair was settled.
